PROFILE

I am a Denver based web developer with a passion for creativity and continued education. I am excited to continue to learn and write complex code. I am currently looking to join a collaborative development team in the Denver metro area or Boulder.

SKILLS

HTML5 - CSS3 - JavaScript - React - React-Redux - jQuery - Git - GitHub - Agile Development - Node.js - Express.js

PROJECTS

Palette Picker

HTML5, JQUERY, EXPRESS, JEST

Palette Picker was an individual Project in which a user can generate a random five color palette and save it to a project to be used later. This was the first project in which we were tasked with creating a server and database on the backend.

Movie Tracker

HTML5, REACT, REACT-REDUX, REACT-ROUTER, SCSS, ASYNC API CALLS, JEST

Movie Tacker was a three person group project in which we were tasked with creating a simplified front-end version of Netflix. This was our first experience writing a redux web application. We created a single page web app that makes asynchronous API calls and displaying new movies with a summary and user ratings.

EXPERIENCE

Turing School of Software and Design Denver, CO

I completed an intensive coding bootcamp in which I learned HTML5, CSS3, Javascript(ES5/ES6), jQuery, React, Redux, Object Oriented and Functional Programming, Test Driven Development, Git and GitHub, Node.js, Express.js, Knex.js, Progressive Web Apps, PostgreSQL, and collaborative programming.

Practice Manager, Therapies of the Rockies Denver/Colo. Springs, CO

I managed everything outside of speech therapy for a practice that started with one office in Aurora. I was the second employee and grew the company to 6 therapists and 2 office managers in just under three years, while also increasing revenues from approx. $70,000/yr. to over $450,000.

Driver Manager, Advantage Logistics Denver, CO

Working directly with Walmart I managed a team of over 30 delivery drivers, for Walmarts online grocery delivery system. Hired, trained, and managed all employees and handled all day to day activities.

EDUCATION

University of Colorado – BS in Business with an emphasis in Marketing 2005
